Kevin Lungwitz

Kevin Lungwitz represents Texas school employees all over the state in employment disputes and certification issues, and he has done so since 1990. In 2007 he began The Lungwitz Law Firm, P.C., to focus on Texas educator representation and the delivery of educator seminars and workshops. Since 2007, Kevin has served as the outside general counsel for the Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association, advising hundreds of TEPSA members. He writes a regular legal column in the TEPSA Newsletter and conducts regular webinars for TEPSA members. Over the years, he has represented literally hundreds and hundreds of school employees in grievances, school board meetings, TEA and SBEC hearings, CPS investigations, and at trial and appeal, including several cases before the Texas Supreme Court. Kevin makes numerous presentations every year to school employees, lawyers, and education students on public education issues. Kevin and his wife, Jeana, are the authors of the book, Texas Family Law for School Administrators, Teachers and Lawyers. (2nd Edition, Park Place Publishing, July 2012)

His peers in the practice of Texas school law elected him to serve as Chair of the School Law Section of the State Bar in 2007. Kevin is a highly-rated speaker on educational issues, and is available for school district in-service educator workshops for CPE credit.
